This book can save your life, and change the world. "Old Age and Death are no longer necessary or acceptable. We are either the last to grow old and die, or the first to stay young and live forever. We choose to be the first to stay young and live forever. Our goal is simple: kill Old Age and Death!" - The Immortalist Manifesto For the first time in human history, Science has the tools to slow down, stop, or even reverse your biological aging. But the powers that be have already decreed that you must grow old and die. The Immortalist Manifesto: Stay Young & Save the World, the controversial new paradigm for our Post-Mortalist Era, reveals what you can do to save yourself - and the planet. It also explains:

- Why the U.S. has $100 billion for "Star Wars" but almost no money for anti-aging life-extension research, the one thing that can save your life
- Why The Religious Right & Vatican oppose in vitro fertilization for infertile couples, genetic engineering to fight cancer, stem-cell research to fight Parkinson's, and cloning to save you from a certain Death

- How women and gays have been put down for desiring to stay young

- How anti-aging research can prevent cancer, heart disease, stroke, diabetes, osteoporosis & Alzheimer's

- Why work must be "excessive, compulsive, joyless and always punitive" under Market Capitalism & Globalization

- Why the U.S. will become more and more like Sweden

- The only way to save Social Security, Medicare, and European pension systems

- Why anti-aging breakthroughs can save Western Civilization

- What is The Death Society and why Bush Junior is its "ideal" President Discover for yourself why Elixir, our first Post-Mortalist philosopher, has been acclaimed as "razor sharp" and "first rate!" by Harvard's Cornel West. Read about "The Immortalist Gameplan" to save your and the planet's life. Ideal for Reading/Discussion groups. Study Guide included.
