Early in their marriage, as John and Rae engage in talks to merge their firm with a metal company to create Guyton Industries, the prospective partners' questionable business practices create a conundrum. Then, one of the men takes John aside and offers an indecent proposal to buy a night with Rae for an exorbitant amount of money. That really sets off John's temper. But much worse. Rae catches John in a compromising situation with the sister of one of the prospective business partners.

Rae has a big secret, one that she hasn't shared with anyone. When she's kidnapped, John's whole world nearly collapses. With no ransom demand and few clues as to her whereabouts, will John be able to find Rae before it's too late?
